- In order to begin the portrait, I will need a 25% deposit once you are happy and in agreement of all terms and conditions.
- Work on the portrait will not commence until the initial deposit is received.
- The initial 25% deposit is non-refundable

Full Payment

- Full payment is required upon completion of your portrait. Delivery or collection will be made upon receipt of full payment.

Updates

- I will send picture updates throughout the making process to make sure you are completely happy with your portraits progress! This can be through your preferred method of contact e.g. Email or social media.
- I may or may not create a video/time lapse sequence of your portrait being made. This is for marketing and advertising purposes. You are welcome to have a copy.
- In some circumstances the portrait may be a surprise or special gift. I will not post any pictures or video information across any social media platform until after the specified gifted date to be arranged when booking is made.
- After the gift date, I will use images and/or video of your portrait in progress/completed/and original image for reference, for my own marketing purposes.
